Friday 10	10.30 10.45 12.00	The Library will be open until 12.00 today. The General Discussion Group will meet in person again, and everyone is welcome to participate. Hazel writes: our discussions usually cover what are basically general topics, but we can hardly ignore the impact of the Corona crisis and lockdown. Many people throughout the world have been victims of the virus through death or illness; others have suffered financially. Yet others have been bored or frustrated at home during the lockdown period, while some have been able to find positive means of adjusting to a new way of life. Members are invited to share their thoughts and experiences relating to this extraordinary period in the history of the world. Improve your Bridge with John Macfarlane Mahjong

This expansive, and at times very funny, novel addresses the current crisis of identity in the UK. It takes us through a panorama of recent events - from the coalition government of 2010, via the riots of 2011 and the 2012 Olympic Games, to the 2016 Referendum and its subsequent fallout. Through its many diverse characters, the book gives a broad view of 21st century England. The Readers' Discussion Group this month will be led by Peter Loader. Improve your Bridge with John Macfarlane Mahjong
