

The British Club of The Hague

What you can look forward to in the month of SEPTEMBER 2021

Friday 3	11.00	ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING Although the Club was closed for many weeks, we need to give you a summary of the 2020-2021 year and bring you up to date with the Club's situation - management, membership, finances, and activities. Equally, this is an opportunity for you to reflect on the Club's present and future, and give your opinion. The relevant documents were sent to you on 30 July. The Committee invites everyone who attends to join them afterwards for a light lunch in the Atrium.
Friday 10	10.45	The General Discussion Group this month will consider the question of English. A remarkable development in The Netherlands for many years now has been the increasing use of English in all areas of life. It can be seen not only in international communications but also in education, the media, advertising, shops, products, books and magazines, not to mention the scientific field. Similar developments, sometimes to a lesser degree, are taking place throughout the world. Where will it all end? What are the arguments for or against an actual world language?
Friday 17	10.45	Continuing the popular get-togethers for crafts enthusiasts, Judy Swann and Kathleen van Velthoven will host another BCH Crafts Morning. If you have a new craft project you would like to discuss, or want to have company while you knit, sew or crochet, come and join them for ninety minutes of good-humoured practical work. They can also help you learn a new craft skill, and will have some basic materials available for you to try. Please bring any spare materials you would like to donate to the group.
Friday 24	10.45	"She'd arrived with her orange teapot and Marigold gloves, their saviour from Solihull, to take over their father's life and release them back to theirs." In Deborah Moggach's novel The Carer, two middle-aged siblings are relieved to have recruited Mandy, who seems to be the ideal carer for their ageing father. This book takes a light-hearted, humorous look at relationships, family, frailty and how the people we think we know can still surprise us... Leading the discussion this month will be Kathleen van Velthoven.
