

The British Club of The Hague

What you can look forward to in the month of MAY 2022

Friday 6	10.30 10.45 12.00	The Library will be open until 12.30. Between 1911 and 1914, a series of seven books was published called Wild Flowers as They Grow. They contained some of the earliest colour photographs (autochromes) of wild flowers in their natural state. Martine will talk about the invention of colour photography a few years earlier, with some stunning examples. She will then focus on twelve types of wild flower in the books, and finally test your knowledge with photographs of other common wild flowers illustrated in the series. Leonard will provide slides reproduced from the autochromes. Improve your Bridge with John
Friday 13	10.30 10.45 12.00	The Library will be open until 12.30. Peter will introduce this month's topic for the General Discussion Group: Tolerance and Compromise. The writer and critic G K Chesterton (originator of 'Father Brown') labelled impartiality "a pompous name for indifference, which is an elegant name for ignorance". Is impartiality the same as tolerance? And is compromise simply a means to settle a dispute by each side making concessions? Your views and opinions will help shed light on these challenging concepts. Improve your Bridge with John
Friday 20	10.30 10.45 12.00	The Library will be open until 12.30. The Atrium will host another Art & Crafts Morning, when you can bring your creative instincts for an informal and relaxed 90 minutes of sewing, knitting, crochet or painting with watercolours. Kathleen, Judy, and Tina will be on hand to help, advise, guide and generally encourage you - whether your experience level is zero or advanced. If you have any relevant materials, do please bring them along for your own use, or to share. Improve your Bridge with John
