Friday 24	10.30 10.45 12.00	The Library will be open until 12.30. The Readers' Discussion Group will review The Phone Box at the Edge of the World, a novel by Laura Imai Messina about mourning, and the joy of survival. Yui loses her mother and her daughter in the tsunami of 11 March 2011. She struggles to move on, but one day learns of an old disused telephone box in a garden, where people who have lost loved ones come to 'speak' to them and thereby come to terms with their loss. Yui makes her own pilgrimage to this phone box, but finds she cannot bring herself to speak. Instead she meets Takeshi, a bereaved husband whose daughter, in the wake of her mother's death, has stopped speaking. Inspired by a real phone box in Japan, with its disconnected "wind" phone, this tale of grief and solace will be introduced by Kathleen van Velthoven. Please note switch in months for book selection! Improve your Bridge with John Macfarlane
