What you can look forward to in MARCH 2026

Friday 6	10.15 10.00 11.00 12.00	The Library will be open until 12.15, with a break between 11.00 and 11.30 The month begins with an Open House session, when coffee, tea, conversation and cake are the order of the day. There is always so much to discuss and discover! Between 11.00 and 11.30 there will be an opportunity for everyone to share ideas and suggestions for ways to improve the selection of a charity during the AGM in April. You will find more information about this discussion in the Wednesday mail on 4 March. Improve your Bridge with John
Friday 13	10.15 10.45 12.00	The Library will be open until 12.15. The Readers' Discussion Group will be led by Marilyn in an examination of Lionel Shriver's novel, Mania. The Mental Parity Movement has taken hold of the country. Everyone is assumed to be equally clever, and discrimination based on intelligence is illegal. Exams, tests and grades have been discarded; university courses are open to all; and actual 'qualifications' are a thing of the past. Lifelong friends Pierson and Emory are driven apart by their opposing views on this situation. Come and join the discussion: is this a witty and terrifyingly plausible take on cancel culture? Have these people succumbed to the temptation to conform to an extreme form of 'wokeism'? Improve your Bridge with John
Friday 20	10.15 10.45 12.00	The Library will be open until 12.15. This session of Speakers' Corner has the theme Find Your Voice, and will start with a prepared speech by Aileen Faulkner on a topic of her choice. This will be followed by vocal exercises to home in on 'your best voice' for speeches and presentations, as well as voice projection techniques to make sure you 'hit the back wall'. Finally, a Round Table discussion: Why do people lie? Marlene and Angela would like you to be prepared to say a few words on 'lies'. Improve your Bridge with John
